INTRODUCTION

St. Paul Lutheran Church, located in the western end of Wythe County, has generally been accepted as the first Lutheran congregation in what is now Wythe County. The land entry records show that the land was settled in 1776 and that a metinghouse and minister's house was built prior to 1781. The date of establishment of the church is usually given as 1776, although no precise written church record documents the year. It has been stated many times that the baptismal records reflect a beginning date of 1776 because of an entry in the church baptismal register. This statement is incorrect. The date of the first baptism of record is August 18, 1793, as will be shown in these records. Nine children of Peter Gunter [Kinder] were baptized on that day. This information was entered in the only extant record book. The oldest child, whose name was entered on the first page, was born on Septemer 17, 1776, a date apparently erroneously chosen as the baptismal date and the date of organization of the church (Kegley, Early Adventurers, II, pp. 55, 57, 92, 110; DeBord, et al, St. Paul Lutheran Church, pp. 5-6).

In 1783, David McGavock, Assistant Surveyor of Montgomery County, surveyed the 100 acres for the use of the congregation. The representatives were Martin Kimberlin, Michael Staffey, Michael Wampler and John Phillippey, Elders. The claim was based on the certificate from the Commissioners of Washington and Montgomery counties dated September 12, 1782. The tract adjoined Heinrich Lambert, Godfree Comfree and Paxton's Glade. The land was held jointly for the German Reformed and Lutheran denominations (Montgomery County Survey Book B, p. 278; DeBord, et al, St. Paul Lutheran Church, p. 17).

In 1785, the Reverend Paul Henkel visited the church and found a regular pulpit erected in it, and a large congregation of Germans and English. He preached in both languages. The following year he spent fourteen days teaching, preaching and instructing the communicants which numbered "a little more than 100." In 1787, Henkel visited again, and gave instruction, and preached again in both German and English. He made other visits in 1789, 1791, 1793, and 1797 (quoted by DeBord, et al, St. Paul Lutheran Church, pp. 9-11).

Other Lutheran preachers who served the early church were W.F.A. Daser, John George Butler, Anthony Franck, and John Stanger. Two Reformed ministeres, the Reverend John Jacob Repass and Bernhard Willy, were also active in the community on behalf of the Reformed group. Willy was first noted in 1787, but returned to the Shenandoah Valley, returning to Wythe County about 1797, and serving until about 1799. He was instrumental in drawing up the Order of Agreement whereby four Protestant Churches (one near town, St. John's, the old church, St. Paul, the new church, Kimberling, and one on the Holston River, St. Mark's) agreed to form a joint church council and work together. Terms of election of elders and deacons were spelled out, and a fee of three shillings was established for baptism of a child where the parents had no church affiliation. Only confirmed Lutherans were accepted as sponsors, and they had to have communed within two years. Non-members were also required to pay six shillings for burial of relatives in the church cemetery. The preacher and the schoolmaster were to be subject only to the elders and deacons, and the members of the congregation to them. The agreement was signed by deacons: Jacob Brunner [Pruner], John Peter Jantz [Yonce], Casper Rather [Rader], George Armbrister, Jacob Kinzer, George Wambler [Wampler], Heinrich Hoppess, George Wambler [Wampler], Jr., Adam Dottinger [Dutton], George Weber [Weaver], John Schnebely [Snaveley], and Phillipp Aker, in addition to Bernhard Willy, D.V.M. The date was May 30, 1798 (DeBord, et al, St. Paul Lutheran Church, pp. 13-17.

In 1799,the Reverend George Daniel Flohr served St. Paul as well as St. John's in Wytheville. Following his death in 1826, the Reverend Jacob Scherer served St. Paul as one of nine churches under his care.

The first church building was probably made of logs, as was the custom of the times. In 1829, a new log church was built, and was dedicated on the last Sunday in April 1829 under the name St. Paul Church. The old building was repaired and became a schoolhouse. Up until 1829 the church apparently had no official name, being generally referred to as "the old church." Other names used to refer to it included "Schnebel's (Schnebly's) Church," the "German Evangelical Congregation on Rith [Reed] Creek," "German Congregation on Reed Creek," and "Church of the Red [erroneously] Creek Congregation" (DeBord, St. Paul Lutheran Church, pp. 20-21).

The church records were kept in the German language until 1834. This publication ends with the end of the German baptismal entries. Jacob Scherer, the minister at the time, preached in both German and English and was instrumental in making the change over to English. In addition, Henkel Press translated church catechism and hymns into English. The Augsburg Confession was translated in 1834 and by 1843 the English liturgy was available (DeBord, et al, St. Paul Lutheran Church, p.

The entries in the baptismal register folllow the format given at the top of the page, the child's name first, with the date born, the parents names, followed by the baptismal date and the names of the sponsors. The annotations were compiled from numerous sources which can be found in the bibliography found elsewhere in this publication. The spelling of the German names are somtimes far removed from the present spellings, but all spellings have been used in the text and the index.

A copy of the original records and the translation can be found at the Virginia State Library, Archives, Richmond. Additional records are available but were not included here. These consist of baptismal records after 1834, membership rolls, etc. The staff of the Wytheville Community College have transcribed the cemetery records and have them arranged by cemetery as well as alphabetically by individual, and these are available for further research.

It was noticed that the entries in the baptismal register used consistently the German word frau for wife. Occasionally, the Latin was substituted and the entry used et uxor. The women who acted as sponsors often had an "n" or "in" added to their name, indicating the feminine form of their name. These have been noted throughout the text. Many of the names, such as Gunter, Konig, Muller, and others, used the umlaut in the original, but they have not been reproduced here.

The available translation was used as a guide, but this author chose to use the spelling of the names as orginally written. For example, Johannes is almost always used in the original for John, and Elizabetha and Catharina for Elizabeth and Catherine respectively. Both copies should be consulted.

In using the annotations it should be noted that when the words "probably," "possibly" and "may" are used to indicate a relationship, these words mean that there is no definite proof for the statement, but the information is included in case the reader can provide the proof.

St. Paul's Church Neighborhood
From Early Settlers Map of Wythe County
By F.B. Kegley and Mary B. Kegley

JOHANN PETER, b.Sept. 17, 1776, PETER GUNTER and MARGARETHA B. Aug. 17, 1793, William Konig & frau[1]

PETER GUNTER is PETER KINDER who had nine of his children baptized on Aug. 17, 1793. Several were given double names, but in other records only the second name was used. Kinder was settled in what is now Wythe County as early as 1771, near present Rural Retreat. This Peter Kinder served in the American Revolution, and was wounded at the Battle of Guilford Courthouse, N.C., and spent some time in Salem recovering. His brother Philip, and his brother-in-law Peter Etter, and his wife Margaret took the wagon over the mountain to nurse him back to health and to bring him back to Wythe County. According to Margaretha's (Margaret's), the widow's declaration, they were married in 1774. Her maiden name was Daude (Doty, Dauti, Daudy, etc.), and she was the daughter of Henry Daude who married in Froeschen, Germany, Anna Elizabetha, daughter of Michael Brandstetter. They left for America in 1765 with their children and son-in-law Henry Lambert, who also settled near St. Paul's Church. Margaret Daude Kinder was born September 22, in 1756 and was given the name Elizabetha Margaretha (Canfield, My German Ancestors, I, pp. 35-39; Kegley, Tithables, p. 9; Pension, 1845; Fries, Records of the Moravians, vol. 4, p. 1689.

Peter Kinder died September 22, 1809 and Margaret died October 23, 1845. Peter is not to be confused with Peter Kinder, the hatter, who lived in Wytheville before moving to Tennessee. Johann (John) Peter, the child, married Mary Stayley (Staley) on Dec. 10, 1795. She was the daughter of Abraham (Abram) Staley, Sr., and his wife Barbara. Peter Kinder, Jr.'s will was probated June 8, 1835 (Wythe County Will Book 4, p. 182). William Konig is probably the William King who is son of Johannes (John) and Sabina King. John left a will naming a son William and a wife Savinah, a variation of Sabina or Sabine. (Wythe County Will Books 2, pp. 4, 5, 546; Wythe County Deed Book 5, p. 177; Marriage Book 1, p.9; Krebs, Emigrants, p. 13).

CHRISTIAN, b.Dec. 15, 1777, PETER GUNTER & MARGARETHA, B. Aug. 17, 1793, Heinrich Daudy & Christina Weberin

CHRISTIAN GUNTER (KINDER) married Rosanna Staley, daughter of Abraham (Abram) Staley, Sr., and his wife Barbara Kettering, a daughter of Adam Kettering (Wythe County Deed Books 5, p. 381; 2, p. 482). The sponsor Heinrich Daudy was Johannes Henrich, known as Henry

1. Frau is the German word for wife and was used almost exclusively in these records.

Daude who was discusssed above. Christina Weberin (Weaver; the "in" denotes feminine form) has not been positively identified. Christena, the daughter of George and Barbara Weaver, was not born until 1796. Cameron in his book, indicates that George Weaver's mother was named Christina; she may have been present for the baptism (Cameron, Early Settlers, p. 259).

JOHANN GEORG, b.Oct. 14, 1779, PETER GUNTER & MARGARETHA, B. Aug. 17, 1793, Heinrich Daudy & his frau

JOHANN GEORG (JOHN GEORGE) GUNTER'S (KINDER'S) baptismal record also appears in the Kimberling Church records. He was known as George (Wythe County Deed Book 5,pp. 398,416). In 1810 census there were three George Kinders, and this George was in the 1850 census of Wythe County, age 71. His wife Barbara, age 68, is said to be the daughter of Peter and Elizabeth Cook Snaveley. George died on March 27, 1851, leaving his widow Barbara and four living children: Mary wife of Charles Foglesong, Peter Kinder who resided in Johnson County, Indiana in 1853, Jemima, wife of Leonard Litz, and Catherine wife of Solomon Buck. Solomon Kinder, another son, died Nov. 9, 1844, leaving infant children Joseph M., John G., Darthula Catherine, and Nancy Jane Kinder (Cooley vs. John M. Kinder et al. Wythe County Circuit Court Clerk's Office Basement, Box 102 (1853-54). Barbara Kinder's will was presented to the court on January 13, 1862, and names some of the same heirs. George and Barbara are buried at St. Paul's, where Barbara's dates are given as April 16, 1796 and May 6, 1862 (Wythe County Will Book 10, p. 224; Cameron, Early Settlers, pp. 172-173; Tombstone inscription). Heinrich (Henry) Daudy has been mentioned above.

JOHANNES, b. July 24, 1781, PETER GUNTER & MARGARETHA, B. Aug. 17, 1793, Michael Branstetter & Louisa Gunterin

JOHANNES (JOHN) KINDER had as his sponsor Michael Brandstetter, possibly the father of Anna Elizabetha Daudy, the wife of Henry Daudy mentioned above. It is also possible that this is Michael Brandstetter who married Mary Snavely, the daughter of John Snavely. Louise Gunterin is Louise Kinder (the "in" denoting the feminine form of the name), but her relationship to the others is not known (Krebs, p. 13; Cameron, Early Settlers, p. 372).

JOHANN HEINRICH, b. June ___,1784, PETER GUNTER & MARGARETHA B. Aug. 17, 1793, Heinrich Lambert & frau was born in Ottenberg near Kaiserlautern, Germany in 1736 and was the son of John Nicholas Lambert and his wife Mary Shuler. Henry's wife was Mary Magdalena Daude (Daute, Doty, etc.) daughter of John Henry and Anna Elizabeth Brandstetter Daude, mentioned above, and was a sister to Margaret the wife of Peter Kinder. The Lamberts lived on the tract adjoining the St. Paul Church (Wythe County Deed Book 5, p. 177; Krebs, Emigrants, pp. 13,23.

JOHANN JACOB, b. Sept. 21, 1786, PETER GUNTER & MARGARETHA, B. Aug. 17, 1793, Heinrich Daudy & Elizabetha Ettern

JOHANN (JOHN) JACOB KINDER known as Jacob appears to have married Mary Rouse (Roush,Rush, etc.), the daughter of John Rouse, on December 22, 1808. (Wythe County Marriage Book 1, p. 26; Wythe County Deed Book 8, p. 356). Heinrich (Henry) Daudy (Daude) was mentioned above. Elizabetha (Elizabeth) Ettern (the "n" denotes the feminie form of the name) is not identifed, but probably is the wife of Peter Etter, and a sister to Margaret Kinder. (Wythe County Will Book 2, p. 8; see also references above.

JOHANN MARTIN, b.Sept. 22, 1788, PETER GUNTER & MARGARETHA, B. Aug. 17, 1793, Martin Kimmerlin & frau

JOHANN (JOHN) MARTIN, known as MARTIN KINDER, appears to have married Eva Rouse, sister of Mary mentioned above, who married Jacob Kinder. They were living in Granger Co., Tennessee in 1825. Martin Kimmerlin [Kimberling], the sponsor, was one of the elders of the St. Paul Lutheran Church, and gave the land for Kimberling Lutheran Church in Black Lick. (Wythe County Deed Book 8, p. 356; Book 10, p. 170; E.A. II, p. 110; See also Cameron, Early Settlers, p. 176).

MARIA MAGDALENA, b. Dec. 18, 1790, PETER GUNTER & MARGARETHA, B. Aug. 17, 1793, Elisabetha Guntern

Nothing else is known of MARY MAGDALENA KINDER. Elisabetha Guntern (Kinder; the "n" denotes the feminine form of the name), the sponsor, cannot be identified with certainty but may be the Elizabeth Steffey who married Jacob Kinder on June 6, 1787, (Kegley, E.A. II, p. 181).

JOSEPH, b. Feb. 25, 1793, PETER GUNTER & MARGARETHA, B. Aug. 17, 1793, Martin Kimmerling & frau

JOSEPH KINDER'S baptismal record was also entered in the Kimberling records under the date of Aug. 18, 1793. He may be the Joseph who married Elizabeth the daughter of Lawrence Kettering (Wythe County Will Book 3, p. 293). Martin Kimmerling (Kimberling) is mentioned above.

CARL NICHOLAUS b. Apr. 24, 1790, CARL BECKER & CATHARINA, B. Aug. 17, 1793, Nicholas Lozer (?) and frau

MARIA ELIZABETHA, b.November 21, CARL BECKER & CATHERINE, B. Aug. 17, 1793, the parents.

The name BECKER is probably intended for the English BAKER. This particular family has not been identified; although there are many other Bakers most were in the eastern part of Wythe County and not associated with German-speaking families or the Lutheran Church. The name Lozer (Lozier, Looser, etc.) is not definite, but if it is Lozer, Nicholas was the husband of Martha Kinzer. See Peter Hedrick below for further details. There is no marriage record for Carl Nicholaus (Nicholas) or Mary Elizabeth Becker in Wythe County.

DANIEL, b.February 17, 1794, WERNER KNEPP & CHRISTINA, B. Sept. 28, 1798, Godfrey Jung & frau

WERNER KNEPP was Anglicized to read VERNER KNIPP (sometimes NIPP). He lived on Reed Creek from about 1795 until about 1819. He and his wife were living in Green County, Tennessee in 1819. At that time he was identified as Verner Knipp, Sr. (Wythe County Deed Book 7, p. 392) Also in Wythe County records were Phillip, Adam, Peter, and Verner Knipp, Jr. (who was living in Green Co., Tenn in 1815). The name Yung is probably intended for Young. In 1811, Adam Knipp of Knox County, Tennessee, was an administrator of the estate and heir of John Godfret Younch which may be a variation of the name Young (Wythe County Deed Books 4, 229; 5, 286,354,537, 6, pp.94, 373) There is no marriage record for Daniel Knipp, but the following appear in Wythe County Marriage Book 1: Catharine who married Simon Reagle [Riggle], 1809; Peggy, daughter of Adam who married George Kegley, 1815; George who married Rebecah Townsend, 1809; and Andrew who married Sally Riggle 1833. Rachel Nipp married a Jacob Blessing in 1827, and Rebecca Nipp married Amos Privett in 1846. A Jennie (Jenny) Knipp was a sister to Charles Fullen and a Caty Knipp was the daughter of John Lindamood (Wythe County Will Books 2, p. 329 and 3, p. 374; administration of the estate of Adam Knipp granted Sarah Harsh, January 8, 1822, Wythe County Orders).

JACOB, b.Feb. 2, 1794, PETER GOTZ and ELIZABETHA, B. Sept. 28, 1794, Jacob Blessle & frau

The name GOTZ is not mentioned in land or marriage records of Wythe County. Jacob Blessle or Blessing may have been the son of Jacob Blessing of Shenandoah County, Virginia. A Jacob Blessing (sometimes Plessley, Plessle, etc.) was a soldier in Dunmore's War in 1774. His wife was Elizabeth, maiden name unknown. Jacob died about 1813 (Wythe County Will Book 2, p. 94).

ELIZABETHA, b. Nov. 2, 1793, GEORGE WEBER & BARBARA, B. Dec. 7, 1794, Heinrich ___ ? (not legible) & frau

WEBER has been translated as WEAVER. George and his wife Barbara (said to be a Blessing) lived west of Staley's Crossroads and owned land where the Weaver brick house now stands. They are buried in Kimberling Lutheran Cemetery. Elizabetha (Elizabeth), the child mentioned here, is probably the Betsy Weaver who married Martin Cormany on July 29, 1813. (DAR lineage papers; Wythe County Marriage Book 1, p. 46).

HEINRICH, b. Oct. 7, 1794, PETER FUCHS & MARIA, B. Dec. 7, 1794, Heinrich ____ & ___ (page torn).

PETER FUCHS or FOX married Mary Steffey on Aug. 29, 1793. He was the son of Peter Fox, Sr., and brother to Adam, Methias and Henry Fox. Other children of Peter and Maria Fox included Catherine, Peter, Johannes, and Anna Maria (Gose, Pioneers, pp. 134,136; Wythe County Marriage Book 1, p.7). Heinrich is the German word for Henry. Several Fox families are in the 1850 Knox County, Indiana Census inlcuding Peter age 51, Mary age 75, Henry age 53, Daniel, age 27, and Joseph age 33, all of whom were born in Virginia.

JOHANNES, b. May 17, 1794, MICHAEL STEFFEY & CHRISTINA, B. Dec. 7, 1794, Peter _____ & ____(page torn).

MICHAEL STEFFEY mentioned here is Michael, Jr., son of Michael Steffey, Sr. Family records suggest that Michael Jr. married: (1) Christina Musser, and (2) Christina Snidow. The latter marriage appears in Montomgery County under the date of Aug. 22, 1786, but Christina's first name is given as Crease. She was the daughter of William Snidow [Snido] (Kegley, E.A.,II, 179). Michael Steffey, Jr., left a will probated June 13, 1836, leaving a wife Christina and children: Johannes (John) mentioned here, Amos, Reuben, Elizabeth, Catherine, Mary, and Susanna (Wythe County Will Book 4, p. 321). The Steffeys are also mentioned in the Kimberling Lutheran Church records. In the 1850 Knox County, Indiana census there are several Steffee, Steffe (Steffey) families including John age 78, Joseph age 44, Peter, age 74, Reuben, age 60, George, age 37, John age 36, Joseph, age 66, Abraham age 20, and James age 36, all of whom were born in Virginia.

MARTIN, b. Jan. 6, 1794, MICHAEL KARMANE & CATHERINA, B. Dec. 7, 1794, Parents.

MARTIN KARMANE, (CORMANY) is one of at least thirteen children of Michael Cormany, Sr., and his wife Catharina (Catherine), whose maiden name was probably Meyers (as documented in a marriage record in Pennsylvania in 1772 for Michael Karmenie and a Catherine Meyers). They lived near present Rural Retreat. Martin died leaving a will probated Sept. 8, 1856 which named two youngest sons Martin and Aaron, other sons David and Daniel, and six daughters not named. His wife is not named in the will because she died in 1846. (Wythe County Will Book 9,p. 159). Michael Carmony's (another of the many spellings of the name) will is recorded in Wythe County Deed Book 3, p. 330 and names wife Catherine, sons Peter, Martin, George, Jacob, John, Michael, Jr., and Henry; and daughters Mary Brown, Catherine Acre [Aker], Elizabeth Vance, Margaret Whetsell, Magdalene Vaught, and Christina Civil, and a grandson Adam Kettering. Martin Carmeny married Betsey (Elizabeth) Weaver in 1813, and following her death in 1846, he married Margaret Wissman Etter, widow of Henry Etter in 1848 (Wythe County Marriage Book 1, pp. 46, 196 Cameron, Early Settlers, pp. 315, 351; Stover, Records, p. 75).

MAGDALENA, b.Dec. 25, 1794, JOHANNES STANGER & MAGDALENA, B. Jan. 18, 1795, George _____ & wife (page torn).

JOHANNES (JOHN) STANGER was the minister of the Zion Lutheran Church, who married Anna Magdalena Wampler, dau. of George Wampler on Dec. 25, 1791. He was born in Kirckheim on Teck, Germany on June 10, 1765. He died Oct. 11, 1848. His daughter Magdalena above, called Polly, married John Earhard on Oct. 6, 1814 (Wythe County Marriage Book 1, p.46). The Stangers had eight other children: Sylvester, Sally, Theresa, John, Sophia, Jacob, Henry, and Catherine (Shouse, Wamplers, pp. 41-45)

MAGDALENA, b. Dec. 13, 1794, GEORGE KINZER & CATHARINA, B. Jan. 18, 1795, Jacob Kinzer and frau.

GEORGE KINZER married Catherine Wampler, daughter of Hans George Wampler on September 26, 1786 in Montgomery County, Virginia. Kinzer (Kinser,Kincer), left a will in 1831 naming daughters Anna and Regina (Wythe County Will Book 11, p. 607). A lawsuit in Smyth County in 1851 names his children as Sarah (Sally) wife of Hezekiah Bonham, Mary (probably the Magdalena above), wife of Phillip Reader, Rosannah, wife of Andrew Peery, Anna Kinser, Regina, wife of Nehemia[h] Bonham, Theresa (Teracy), wife of William Peery, and a deceased daughter, Elizabeth Gose's heirs, who were Jacob Gose, Sally Gose, wife of Miles Claypole, Teracy Gose, wife of Cornelius McGuire, and Catherine Gose, wife of Alexander Suiter. George Kinzer's wife Catherine died in 1809 (Shouse, Wampler Family, pp.24, 40; Hezekiah Bonham et al vs. Jacob Cassell et al. File 9, Chancery Ended Causes, 1851, Smyth County Virginia,). George Kinzer (Kinser) married second to Mrs. Mary Davis, widow of John Davis, and they moved to Kentucky (Shouse, Wampler Family, p. 41; Wythe County Marriage Book 1, p.49; see also Bonham vs. Rufus Headrick and others, Wythe County Circuit Court Clerk's Office, Basement Box 108. 1859, mentioned below; Wythe County Marriage Book 1, pp. 68, 76, 84, 111). The relationship of Jacob Kinzer to George has not been proved, but George did have a brother Jacob.

HEINRICH, b. Dec. 28, 1794, JACOB KINZER & ESTHER, B. Jan. 18, 1795, Johannes Stanger and frau.

JACOB KINZER (sometimes KINCER, KINSER), married Esther Wampler, daughter of Michael and Elizabeth Wampler (Shouse, Wamplers, p. 12). John Stanger's wife was daughter of George Wampler. Heinrich is the German spelling of Henry. He is the one who probably married Rachel Etter in 1816 (Wythe County Marriages Book 1, p. 54).

MARIA, b.Sept. 7, 1794, JOHANNES KONIG & SARA, B. Jan. 18, 1795, Georg Wambler and frau.

JOHANNES KONIG (JOHN KING), He married Sara (Sarah) Nifong in 1793 (Wythe County Marriage Book 1, p.7) As there was several Georg (George) Wamplers, it is not clear which one was the sponsor here. Maria (Mary), the child here, may be the one who married Jacob Wampler in 1815. There was also a marriage for Mary King and Henry Wisman on October 28, 1820 (Wythe County Marriage Book 1, pp.46, 67) so it is not clear if the Wampler marriage is the correct one for this child.

JOHANN HEINRICH, b, July 27, 1794, ADAM KOCH & MARGARETHA B. Apr. 6, 1795, John Rausch and frau.

ADAM KOCH or COOK owned land in the Black Lick community. He and wife Margaret conveyed land to Michael Castle [Cassell] in 1797. In deeds of 1806, Adam and a wife Anne transferred land on the both sides of the North Fork of Sugar Run, a branch of Reed Creek to Michael Cassell, the place being where Cooks lived (Wythe County Deed Books 2, p. 125; 4, pp. 340,384). Jacob Dobler, Sr., in his will probated in 1817, names a daughter Anne Cook, and a son-in-law Michael Cassell among others (Wythe County Will Book 2,p. 226). John Rausch (Rouse, Rush, etc.) was a neighbor and his daughters intermarried with the Cassell, Musser, Cormany, Kinder and other families of the area. For further details, see below

JACOB, b. Nov. 21, 1794, JOHANNES DERTER & CATHARINA, B. Apr. 6, 1795, Frederick Mohr and frau.

JOHANNES DERTER (DARTER or JOHN TARTER) has not been certainly identified, but is not the son of Nicholas Tarter as that John was born in 1783, and would only be 11 at the time of the birth of Jacob above. Jacob Darter, Sr., had a son John but no dates are given (Darter (Darter-Tarter Family, pp. 30, 53). Peter Darter married Elizabeth the daughter of Frederick Moore and Elizabeth Kinser Moore (Mohr), Sr., in 1799. There was also a Frederick Moore, Jr., who married a Christena (Wythe County Deed Book 1, p. 285). See below for further information about Elizabeth Kinser Moore.

CATHARINA, b.Jan. 8, 1795, DANIEL HELDENBERG & BARBARA, B. Apr. 6, 1795, Georg Weber and frau.

DANIEL HELDENBERG [HILLENBERG] married Barbara Shrider, daughter of John Shrider, bond dated May 25, 1787 (Kegley, E.A., II, p. 181). Peter Wampler was appointed administrator of the estate of Daniel in May 1819. In 1834, some of the heirs were named in a deed: Valentine, Christian, Peggy, Rosanna, John and his wife Anna, Hezekiah Kinzer and his wife Mary, and Daniel Hillenberg, Jr. (Wythe County Deed Books 12, p. 738). Catharina (Catherine) above, married John Deckert, son of Jacob, in 1814. Rosina, the child here, married John Messersmith in 1818, and was living in Cole County, Missouri in 1832 (Wythe County Marriage Book 1, p. 59; Wythe County Deed Book 12, p. 457). The sponsors are not identified because there are several Georg (George) Wamblers (Wamplers) in the community.

JOHANNES (?), b. Sept. 30, 1795, PETER HETTERICH & ANNA, B. Jan. 24, 1796, George Kinzer and frau.

JOHANNES (JOHN) HETTERICH is intended for HEDRICK. Peter Hedrick selected land in what is now Wythe County about 1789-1790. He is believed to have married twice, Anna being his second wife. She may be the Anna Hedrick mentioned as a Kincer, sister to Elizabeth Moore, Michael Kincer of the Revolutionary War, Martha Lozier, George, Peter, Frederick, Walter, and Jacob Kincer, and Savinah King. (Bonham vs. Headrick, Chancery Box 108, 1859, Wythe County Circuit Court Clerk's Office, Basement; Hezekiah Bonham, et al vs. Jacob Cassell, et al), File 9, Chancery Ended Causes, 1851, Smyth County, Va.). Notice that George Kinzer (Kincer) was sponsor, probably her brother. He names daughters Elizabeth, wife of Jacob Reeder, Mary, wife of Abraham Steffey, and Anna wife of Granville Ward, sons, Jacob, Peter, George, Joseph, Christian and John Hedrick. The Henry Wamplers moved to Monroe County, Indiana (Wythe County Marriage Book 1, p.10; Shouse, Wamplers pp. 25, 49).

ANDREAS (ANDREW) SCHWALER (SWALLOW) was born April 17, 1760 in Berks Co., Pa. and from that place he served in the Revolutionary War. SUSANNA, b. March 10, 1796, ADAM KETTERING & ANNA MARIA, B. May 15, 1796, parents.

ADAM KETTERING (also KETTENRING, CATRON, etc.), according to Henry Harding Catron, is the son of Christopher Kettenring of Wythe County, but he gives no reference. Adam is said to have married Anna Maria Etter. They had other children listed by Catron: John Philip, Adam, Jr., Magdalena (born Nov. 14, 1794) and Susanna above. There may have been others. Susanna (Susannah) appears to have married David Yanson [Johnson] in 1814. Gose in Pioneers, also lists Adam as a son of Christopher and Susannah Gose who landed in America September 9, 1765 on the ship "Chance." Jacob Catron (Kettering, etc.) the blacksmith also had a son Adam. Deeds show that an Adam and Mary (Polly) Kettering (Catron),Senr., were living in Grayson County, Tennessee when they sold their land in Wythe County.(Wythe County Marriage Book 1, pp.35, 46; Wythe County Deed Book 11, p. 180; Wythe County Will Book 2,p. 365; Catron, Kettenring Family, 1966 edition , pp. 394, 436).

ELIZABETH, b. Aug. 13, 1827, WILH. COGODEN and ELIZABETH, B. Aug. 11, 1827, mother.

This name is not clear in the original, but may be William Cowden who married Elizabeth Snabelly (Snaveley) on October 27, 1808 (Wythe County Marriage Book 1, p. 36).

RACHEL,b. March 1, 1820, DANIEL WISELY & uxor MARIA, B. March 31, 1818 [dates are in error in the original], Mary Stroh.

DANIEL WISELY, (JR.), the son of Daniel Wisely, Sr., and his wife Elizabeth Davis Wisely, married Mary (Polly) Straw the daughter of Leonard Straw, Sr. (Will Book 3, p. 131). The sponsor in the two baptisms above is probably Maria Wisely's mother. Daniel Wisely moved to Missouri before 1845, and was probably living in Calloway County where his brother Joel, and sisters Barbara Straw, and Ann Gray, widow of William Gray, were living. (Wythe County Deed Book 16, p. 759; Deed Book 27, p. 90; Book 17, pp. 613,615,732).

ELIZABETH, b. Jan. 2, 1820, MICHAEL KRIEGER & uxor POLLY, B. June 18, 1820, Mary Stroh.

MICHAEL KRIEGER (CRIGGER, CREAGER, CREGER, etc.) could be any one of several by that name. Elizabeth has not been identified. The sponsor Mary Stroh (Straw) was probably a neighbor.

DANIEL, b.July 25, 1819, DAVID STROH & uxor BARBARA, B. June 18, 1820, Daniel Wiseley and frau.

DAVID STROH (STRAW)'s wife BARBARA Wiseley Straw is the daughter of Daniel Wiseley, Sr., and his wife Elizabeth. Davis Wiseley, who are the sponsors here. (Wythe County Will Books 1, p. 90, and 6, p. 227; for other information see above.

It is possible that Martha Catherine is the Catherine who married Peter Catron in 1843. The bond is dated August 12, 1843, and surety is George Wetzell (Wythe County Marriage Book 1, p.158).

KESIA, b.Aug. 5, 1827, ABRAHAM STAHLY & frau, B.Dec. 30, 1827, parents.

A William King married Ann (Anna) Myers, widow of Peter Myers, Jr. in 1838, apparently a second wife (Wythe County Marriage Book 1, p. 128). The 1850 census has William designated as William, Sr. and Christley, age 23, is living with the family. Christley is designated as Christopher on the tombstone at Kings Grove Cemetery. He died July 29, 1872. In the marriage records he is named as Christopher who married on December 31, 1850, Susan (Susannah) Moyers, age 22, who was living in the King household on December 1, 1850. The marriage bond was dated July 9, 1850. His wife was Rosannah Staley, daughter of Abraham and Rosina Barbara Kettering Staley, but no marriage record has been found. They married about 1798. This family moved to Fayette County, Indiana about 1828. Although Cameron in his book believes that this Christian and Rosannah are parents of Peter Franklin Kinder, it is possible that there was another Christian Kinder, or that Christian married a second time. The first two children, Elizabeth and Margaret Elizabeth were born in 1799 and 1806, and then no record of any children until 1828 above. There was one other child, Catherine Anna Kinder, born Dec. 10, 1829 and mentioned below (Cameron, Early Settlers, pp. 170,171).

He and his family, including Michael Crigger, Senr., emigrated to America in 1765, coming to what is now Wythe County about 1777. Michael's wife was Christina, HEINRICH WAMPLER, known as John Heinrich (Henry) was son of Peter and Mary Magdalena Wolf Wampler. He was born about 1793, and died about 1868 in Wythe County and is buried at St. Pauls without a marker. She died about 1899. He married about 1822 to Margaret Wampler, daughter of George Wampler, Jr., and his wife Elizabeth Steffey Wampler. They had at least seven children: Josiah Beattie (born 1828), Mary (Polly, born about 1829, mentioned above), Sally (Sallie the child here), George born 1833 (mentioned below), David born 1834, Ann born about 1838, and Henry Mitchell Wampler born 1840. Sally (Sallie) married Alexander Worrall. (Shouse, Wamplers, pp. 72-73, 132-133).

ANNA, b. Mar. 22, 1831, ABRAHAM UMBERGER and frau, B. July 3, 1831, parents.

ABRAHAM UMBERGER has not been identified. There was a marriage for an Abrham Umberger and Sarah Heldridge on July 4, 1826. There also was a marriage bond for Abram Umberger with John Barns, dated Sept. 16, 1840, for marriage with Tamby (Samby?) Minor, daughter of William Minor, late of Wythe County. Nothing is known of Anna, the child here. (Wythe County Marriage Book 1, pp. 81, 145; Marriage Bond Book, p. 348). It is unlikely that this entry concerns Colonel Abraham (Abram) Umberger, (1816-1880), who left a will, and is buried at Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, as he would only be 15 at the time of the birth of Anna, above (Wythe County Will Book 13, p. 323; tombstone inscriptions).

ELIZABETH JANE, b. Apr. 21, 1831, PETER KARMANE and frau, B. July 31, 1831, parents.

PETER KARMANE (CORMANY) is mentioned above. Elizabeth Jane married James H. Harkrader on February 20, 1851. The bond was issued on January 18, 1851 (Wythe County Marriage Book 1, p. 208; Bond Book, p. 578).

JACOB KONIG (KING) may be the Jacob King mentioned in the 1850 Wythe County Census (Family #917) with a wife Polly and a child, Catherine, age 18. This Jacob married Polly Patton, daughter of William Patton in 1818, with surety dated February 21, 1818. Jacob was identified as Jacob King, Jr., on the bond (Wythe County Marriage Book 1, p. 59). Jacob died December 2, 1855, at age 60. His widow Polly and a son, Isaac P. King are mentioned on the death certificate (Wythe County Death Record Book, p. 4). In 1856, the heirs of Jacob King are mentioned as William King and wife Rosanna, Jefferson King and wife Catherine, Joseph Baumgardner and wife Margaret, Stephen Brown and wife Elizabeth, Josephus King and wife Sarah, and Catherine King (Wythe County Deed Book 20, p. 609).

THOMAS FRANKLIN, b. July 7, 1831, JOH. SCHNEBLE and frau, B. Aug. 20, 1831, parents.

JOH. (JOHN) SCHNEBLE (SNAVELY) has not been identified. There is no further information about Thomas Franklin Snavely in Wythe County.

JOHANN JACOB, b. July 6, 1831, REUBEN KINDER and frau, B. Oct. 23, 1831, parents.

REUBEN KINDER (born in 1802) is probably the son of Peter Kinder, Jr., and Mary Staley Kinder. He died in Smyth County after 1850. Reuben Kinder married Sarah (Sallie) Whetsel born about 1804, daughter of Peter Wetzell, Sr., and his wife Elizabeth (Wetzel vs. Wetsel, Box 90, Wythe County Circuit Clerk's Office, Basement, filed 1834). Reuben's other children included Sophia, Peter, Granville, Margaret A., George, and James H. Kinder. Johann (John) Jacob, the child here, was married July 11, 1857 to Catherine (Katy) Groseclose, daughter of Jacob and Susan Groseclose. After she died, John married her sister Lockie (Cameron, Early Settlers, pp. 56, 177.

SALLY JANE, b. May 25, 1831, LEONHARD LITZ and frau, B. Oct. 23, 1831, parents.

LEONHARD (LEONARD) LITZ was mentioned above. Sally Jane is called Sarah Jane by Cameron in his book Early Settlers, p. 367.

KATHARINA, b. Aug. 4, 1831, BENJAMIN STAHLE and frau, B. Oct. 23, 1831, parents.

BENJAMIN STAHLE (STALEY) was mentioned above. His daughter Katharina (Catherine) was married January 7, 1850 to George Washington Musser. She died June 15, 1891 and is buried at Kimberling Lutheran Church Cemetery (Cameron, Early Settlers, p. 240).

ELIZABETH JANE, b. Jan. 5, 1832, JOH. GRUB and wife, B. March 12, 1832, parents.

JOH. (JOHN) GRUB (GRUBB) may be the one who married Polly Davidson on January 20, 1825 (Wythe County Marriage Book 1, p. 79). However, there are several John Grubbs. Some of the Grubbs moved to Grayson and Lee Counties, Virginia and also some moved to Indiana. Elizabeth Grubb, widow of a John Grubb, was living in Sullivan County Tennessee in 1856 (Wythe County Deed Book 20, p. 446). In a suit filed in 1855, the heirs of a John Grubb are mentioned as Elizabeth, the widow, David, Franklin (deceased), John, and the wife (no name given) of George Miller (Miller vs. Grubb, Box 105 (1855-1857), Wythe County Circuit Court Clerk's Office, Basement).

MARTIN, b. Jan. 23, 1832, MARTIN KARMANE and frau, B. May 5, 1832, parents.

MARTIN KARMANE (CORMANY) has been mentioned above. Martin, the child here may be the one who married Elizabeth Dutton, daughter of Adam Dutton, Jr., and his wife Elizabeth Huddle Dutton, on December 18, 1851, but this is not certain. (Wythe County Marriage Book 1, p. 208; Marriage Bond Book 1, p. 624).

KATHARINA, b. May 19, 1832, ABRAHAM NEFF and wife, B.

Aug. 26, 1832, parents.

ABRAHAM NEFF is mentioned above. Katharina (Catherine) was married on May 17, 1855 to Rufus Huddle, son of David and Loruhamia Huddle. They moved to Texas (Wythe County Marriage Book 2A, p. 3; Bond Book 1, p. 729; Neff family records).

JEFFERSON, b. June 30, 1832, GEORGE WETZEL and frau, B. Aug. 26, 1832, parents.

GEORGE WETZEL, son of Peter Wetzel, Sr., is probably the one who married Margaret Cormany in 1815, and is mentioned above. There is no further record for Jefferson.

ELIZA JANE,b. no date, PETER ETTER and frau, B. Aug. 20, 1832, mother.

PETER ETTER married Margaret (Peggy) Wampler on June 20,1811 (Wythe County Marriage Book 1, p. 44). He died May 24, 1840, and left a will recorded in Will Book 5, p. 340. He names his children Wayman, Sophiah, Sally, Polly, Margaret (born April 2, 1824), Martin (born April 4, 1826), Eliza, Ephraim (born February 1, 1836) and Mary Elizabeth. Many years later a lawsuit was filed in which Mary Elizabeth, the youngest child (born May 19, 1838) and her husband Bedford Overby brought suit. Eliza Jane, mentioned as the child here, died July 26, 1845, without children. Her birthdate is given as July 1, 1831 Overby vs. Etter et als, Box 121 (1875-1876), Wythe County Circuit Court Clerk's Office, Basement).

For information on the KRIEGER (CRIGGER, CREGER, CREAGER, family, see above. Nothing else is known of the child Ephraim.

GEORG, b. May, 24, 1832, HEINRICH WAMPLER and frau, B. Sept. 23, 1832, parents.

HEINRICH WAMPLER, known also as John Heinrich Wampler, son of Peter and Mary Magdalena Wolf Wampler, were mentioned above. Shouse in her book gives the child, Georg (George) Wampler's birth date as May 24, 1833 in error. If this George is the same one, he married Susan Staley, daughter of Benjamin and Regina Huddle Staley. She was born January 1839. George died in Wythe County in 1907 and Susan died before May 17, 1909 and both are buried in St. Paul's Cemetery in unmarked graves. (Shouse, Wamplers, pp. 72, 73, 133). See also above.

WILLIAM BROWN, b. Dec. 5, 1832, DAVID HOTTEL and frau, B. March 10, 1833, parents.

DAVID HOTTEL (HUDDLE) is probably the one who married Loruhamia (Ruhama?, Reuhama?) Brown about 1830. David was born March 16, 1809, the son of John and Catharine Litz Huddle, and died Feb. 22, 1887. She was born March 2, 1813, and died March 30, 1886. William Brown Huddle was the first child of ten children who lived. Five others died in infancy. The children in addition to William Brown were: Rufus, mentioned elsewhere, John Michael, Missouri J., Barbara C., Benjamin Jacob, Polly Ann, Josiah Emory, James Floyd, and Franklin Gleaves (Huddle, History of the Descendants of John Hottel, p. 422-423; Hoch et al, Kimberling...p. 31).

EPHRAIM, b. July 7, 1833, JOH. BOCK and frau, B. March 10, 1833, parents.

JOH. (JOHN) BOCK (BUCK) was born April 1, 1801, son of John Christian and Christina Steffey Buck. He married Catherine Phillippi, daughter of Christian and Catherine Dutton Phillippi. She was born 1806 and died before 1870. John Buck died October 6, 1879. They had seven children: Felix, Christina, Mary, Stephen, Ephraim mentioned here, Lucrecy Jane, and James Lafayette Buck. Ephraim Buck married on January 8, 1856 to Sophia Dutton, daughter of Adam and Catherine Dutton. At this time Ephraim's mother is named as Barbara (Wythe County Marriage Book 2A, p. 6). The 1850 Wythe County Census (Family 1050) has John's wife as Catherine. Cameron states the date of Ephraim's marriage as June 8, 1854 and that she was daughter of Adam and Elizabeth Huddle Dutton. Ephraim died on November 14, 1909 and is buried in Mountain View Cemetery at Rural Retreat. John Buck is listed as an heir of Phillip Dutton and also of Christian Buck in Wythe County Deeds (Cameron, Early Settlers, pp. 105, 106, 114, 115; Wythe County Deed Books 10, p. 354; 19, p. 250)..
